

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Always known for his active service to the medical profession, Doctor Charles John McDonald is retiring from private practice after serving the state for 47 years; and,

WHEREAS, The father of four daughters, Dr. McDonald recalls coming to Sioux Falls and working with Dr. S. A. Donahoe in 1935, a time he remembers as the days of the two dollar office call; and,

WHEREAS, Charles McDonald is a well-respected physician whose commitment to health care involves an allegiance to many important medical groups. In nearly a half century of practice, he has been president of the South Dakota Medical Association, South Dakota Academy of General Practitioners, South Dakota Blue Shield, Seventh District Medical Association, and the Sioux Valley Medical Association. In addition, Dr. McDonald is a former Chief of Staff at McKennan and Sioux Valley Hospitals, was Medical Director of the Minnehaha County Mental Illness Board, and presently is the Medical Director of South Dakota Blue Shield; and,

WHEREAS, Along with being a capable doctor and a darn good storyteller, this grandfather of 14 (with number 15 on the way) also enjoys golfing and has a passionate interest in history--he is past president of the Minnehaha and State Historical Societies and is presently on the Board of Directors for the Center for Western Studies at Augustana College; and,

WHEREAS, Dr. McDonald's children and his wife, Elizabeth, are very proud of their man, for he seems to do everything and still has time to read and play golf:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim June 30, 1982, as

DR. CHARLES McDONALD DAY

In South Dakota.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Eleventh Day of June, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Two
